Do I need SRC pre-approval before I can begin my project?

Note: some projects may be governed by the rules for more than one category

YES Is your project a continuation of last year's project? (Continuation Project) NO Does your project involve ... asking your friends or other YES people questions? Experiments on yourself? Experiments on other people in any way? (Human Subjects)* Does your project involve ... your pet? Any other animals YES that have bones, except people? E-mail src@science-fair.org for immediate assistance with experimental design. (Vertebrate Animals) NO Does your project involve ... mold or other fungus? Bacteria? Virus? Or anything that might make you sick? Samples collected from the environment? YES DNA from one organism inserted into the DNA of another organism? Anything coming from a human or animal body? Cheek cells or other cells? Teeth? Bone? Fluids such as blood, saliva or urine? (Potentially Hazardous Biological Agents) NO Does your project involve ... You MUST Dangerous activities such as being on a roof? Or igniting have SRC preobjects? (Hazardous Activities) approval. Any chemical such as household cleaning agents, solvents, Your YES application metals or organic chemicals? (Chemicals) • Model rockets? Lasers? UV light? Radiation? Guns or gun must be powder? Or anything else that might be considered dangerous received on or hazardous? (Hazardous Devices) Nov 22, Prescription drugs? Alcohol, wine or beer? Cigarettes or other 2022, at the tobacco? Gunpowder? Any product which the student may not latest. legally purchase? (Regulated Substances) Additional forms are NO required. You do NOT need SRC pre-approval. Your application must be received on Jan 17, 2023, at the latest.

^{*}Field of Study for Behavioral Science is discontinued.